

Description The one and only, true Unfading Red carries a price tag that reflects the limited deposits and difficult production of this exotic and extremely hard material. Brick red in color and one of the most durable slates known.

Origin Washington County, New York

Lengths (inches)	Widths (inches)	Exposure (3" Headlap, inches)
24	12, 14	10.5
22	11, 12, 14	9.5
20	10, 11, 12	8.5
18	9, 10, 11, 12	7.5
16	8, 9, 10, 11, 12	6.5
14	7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12	5.5
12	6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 12	4.5

Thickness (inches)	Pounds per Square
Nominal $1/4$ - $3/8$	850-950
$3/8$ - $1/2$	1,300-1,400
$1/2$ - $3/4$	1,800-2,100
$3/4$ -1	2,700-3,000
1 - $1 1/4$	3,600-4,000

Please note that not all sizes are available in every thickness. Call for availability.

Slate General Properties

- 100% natural product
- Exceptionally durable, 100-year useful life
- Proven historic performance & beauty
- Non-combustible—Class A Fire Resistant
- Resistant to acid rain, ultra-violet light & chemicals
- Withstands freeze/thaw cycles & high temperatures
- Rated Class 3 and Class 4 Hail Impact Resistance ($3/4$ to 2 inch ice balls)

	This Slate*	ASTM Standards
Breaking Load	1172 pounds	575 pounds minimum
Water Absorption	0.190%	0.25% maximum
Depth of Softening	0.0007"	0.002" maximum
ASTM Rating	S1

As tested by ASTM. Test report available upon request.*

363 Vermont 30 South, Poultney, VT 05764

802-287-2295 | Fax 802-287-2296 | newenglandslate.com | Formed by Nature, Crafted by Hand